Table of Contents

Doing the Continental: A New Canadian-American Relationship

by David Dyment, Ph.D.

Preface

Part I - Introduction

- Chapter 1 - Same piece of real estate?
- Chapter 2 - Avro Arrow, the world’s fastest fighter jet runs out of fuel

Part II - Continental Dance, Managing the Relationship

- Chapter 3 - Basic steps
- Chapter 4 - Engaging a preoccupied partner
- Chapter 5 - Canada is not a mouse!
- Chapter 6 - Big steps
- Chapter 7 - Rules for the dance

Part III - Dance Venues

- Chapter 8 - What's Mexico got to do with it, continental counterweight or deadweight?
- Chapter 9 - An energy superpower without an energy strategy
- Chapter 10 - Not water tight
- Chapter 11 - Defrosting Arctic sovereignty
- Chapter 12 - Manifest Destiny and Quebec

Part IV - Conclusion

- Chapter 13 - Beyond our shared continent, Canada in the world
- Chapter 14 - In the groove, from fear to opportunity

Appendix - Twelve Ideas for Doing the Continental

Further Reading

Acknowledgements

Endnotes